

Joshua D. Wright

Joshua D. Wright is an Assistant Professor at George Mason University School of Law, where he teaches in the areas of antitrust, contracts, and law and economics. Professor Wright's research focuses on the law and economics of the competitive process for product distribution, including slotting allowances, category management, exclusive dealing, and other contractual arrangements. His publications have appeared or are forthcoming in the Journal of Law and Economics, the Antitrust Law Journal, Yale Journal on Regulation, the Review of Law and Economics, and the UCLA Law Review. Professor Wright received a Ph.D. degree in economics from UCLA, and a B.A. in economics with highest distinction at the University of California, San Diego. He also received a J.D. from the UCLA School of Law, where he was a managing editor of the UCLA Law Review before clerking for the Honorable James V. Selna of the Central District of California.